

AN END TO FIGHTING

Has Come in Manchuria for the Present, Both Sides Resting.

First Battle of Shakh River

Is Over and the Battle Worn Troops are Being Placed in Position for Another Trial of Strength. Continued Activity Reported at Port Arthur.

The suspension of actual fighting in Manchuria continues and the first battle of the Shakh river may be said to have ended. Both the Russian and Japanese commanders are resting their battle worn troops and making ready their positions. In Russian military circles it is hinted that new developments may be looked for eastward.

The roads are soggy, impeding operations of an extended scale. No official estimates of the losses in the recent fighting have been received and the fragmentary unofficial reports are contradictory. Tokio hears that the Russian forces have been reinforced by about 30,000 men and that all six divisions now confront the Japanese left.

From Chee Foo comes reports of continued activity at Port Arthur, where fighting is almost daily in progress.

Bayoneted the Japanese.

Mukden, Oct. 20.—The Japanese are fond of night attacks, which they organize cleverly. They light a series of enormous camp fires at false bivouacs and then stealthily creep upon the Russian sentinels, who, seeing the darkness and blinded by the glare cannot see the Japanese approaching. Or they take advantage of a rain storm and try to surprise the Russians. On Tuesday night they attacked both sides, but ran into a hornet's nest. The night was very black, rain was falling and a cold wind was blowing.

"A fine night for the Japanese," everyone said, and the Russians hid in the trenches had strict orders given to them that if the expected but uninvited guests appeared, not to fire but to meet them with the bayonet. It was so dark that a person could not see his hand before his face, except vaguely. The rain came in the direction of the false camp fires, all eyes were strained and ears listening intently. The wind which was as cold as ice and cut to the bones, was suddenly freighted with ominous sounds, an unmistakable squish of hurrying feet, accompanied by the metallic rattle of arms. The Russians stooped lower. The officers passed along another caution—under no circumstances to fire but to meet the Japanese with the bayonet.

On they came. The Russians could already see the silhouettes of the Japanese and watched the approach of their victims with grim satisfaction. Their only anxiety being lest some nervous soldier might fire and thus spoil the game. The Japanese came on, straining their eyes and in the darkness, evidently believing that the Russians were not so close. When they were right under their feet, the Russians rose up as if out of the ground and, with a hurrah, wildly fell upon them with the bayonet.

The front ranks of the Japanese broke, turned and smashed into the rear line, throwing the whole force into confusion. Like a rabble they tried to escape, but the Russian bayonets were too sure, bayoneting them as they passed. For a mile the work of slaughter proceeded and few of the Japanese lived to carry back the tale in the morning the ground was strewn with corpses.

Sincheon still remains half in Russian hands and half in the hands of the Japanese. The former have not been able to dislodge the latter from the Buddhist Temple which they so thoroughly fortified when the village was occupied by their forces, as previously claimed to the Associated Press.

AFTER A FRUITLESS HUNT FOR FOUR DAYS

Wife Was Found Locked in Closet Less Than a Block From Home Which She Had Left in Delirium.

New York, Oct. 20.—After a fruitless search which began last Saturday and has been taken up by the police of the five boroughs of Greater New York, Mrs. Ray Singer, 29 years old, has been found locked in a closet within less than a block of her home in east New York. She had been imprisoned four days without food or water.

While the nurse was absent for a few moments last Saturday, Mrs. Singer, who had been ill for some time, suddenly arose, threw on a wrap and fled from the house in a delirium. Seeking refuge from imaginary pursuers, she hurried down the street, ran into an unused building in the rear of a mission, and closed the door. A spring lock snapped behind her and she was a prisoner.

At brief intervals the woman screamed and pounded on the door but the neighbors paid little attention to the sounds until they had continued intermittently four days. Then a woman who happened near by discovered and rescued the unfortunate patient.

Mr. Singer who has searched the city continuously for some trace of his wife, arrived just as she was found. She recognized him at once and, it is believed will recover.

DESPERATE CHARACTER

Has Been Arrested by the Alabama Officials.

He is Identified as the Man Who Assaulted Two Women and Attempt to Assault Two Others.

Montgomery Ala., Oct. 20.—Judge Jones, alias Frank Mitch, a negro, captured at Century, Fla., who was brought here, has been identified as the man who assaulted two women, attempted an assault on two others of his own race, and then attempted to assault Mrs. Wm. Ledlow, white, at the point of a pistol. It is thought here that he is the same man who assaulted Mrs. F. M. Hydrick, at Bolles Gap, Jefferson county, for whose capture a large reward was offered.

The car in which the couple were traveling was searched but no trace of the gems was found.

WAR VESSELS AT LEAGUE ISLAND YARD.

Philadelphia, Oct. 20.—With the arrival of the battleship Massachusetts at the League Island navy yard preparations were begun to repair the formidable squadron of war vessels at the navy yard so they can be mobilized next December. An officer of the navy yard said that by Christmas all of the vessels must be at Hampton Roads for winter maneuvers. As soon as the Massachusetts fastened to its dock today, a large crowd of mechanics boarded the ship. All classes of war vessels are at League Island, including the first class battleships Massachusetts and Alabama, the cruisers Denver and Montgomery, the auxiliary cruiser, Prairie, the torpedo boat destroyer, Stringham and Hopkins, the monitors Miantonomah and several sea going tugs.

GOOD

Trade for Iron That Set In

With October

Has Kept Up During the Past Week.

Merchant Stock of Pig Iron Was Reduced 75,000 Tons During Last Week.

Advance Has Not Yet Been Enough For Blowing in Of Furnaces That Have Awaited a Real Profit.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 20.—The Iron Trade Review this week says:

"The increased activity in the iron market that set in with October has kept up and in pig iron the past week has seen the highest prices of the year. Consumption has been over lapping production for several weeks and while smelters of pig iron bough in the market, particularly foundries, find no marked increase in orders, they are steadily melting more iron than in the summer months. The statistics indicate that pig iron output on October 1 was at a rate of about 16,500,000 tons a year, while in March, April and May, the spring 'freshet' carried it up to a rate of 18,000,000 tons. Pig iron production is now on its second upturn for the year, and the extent of the movement depends on several factors. One is the uncertainty of coal strikes in the south. Another factor is the amount of idle capacity that will come in as prices rise. The advance has not been enough yet for the blowing in of furnaces that have been waiting for a real profit. But the important fact is that merchant stocks of pig iron were reduced 75,000 tons last month, with coke and anthracite production 125,000 tons more than in August.

It would seem that too much has been made of the marking up of southern iron to $10.50 for No. 2 foundry and to $11 by some producers. With little or no iron selling at those prices they are scarcely more significant than was the $12 price named in early 1902 by oversold producers who had no iron to sell at any price. Northern foundry irons have advanced, however, in the past week on account of actual sales and the minimum for No. 2 foundry is now $12 at central western furnaces, while sales have been made at $12.25, an advance of 25 to 50 cents in a fortnight. Bessemer iron has sold at $12.25 at furnace and $12.50 is now asked. The steel rail situation is a waiting one. Manufacturers cite the well maintained freight rates of the carriers as an important element in the problem of rail prices for next year. While $24 is a commonly discussed price, conditions in the next few weeks may fix $26 or even $28 as the basis. While rail requirements for next year are expected to be considerably beyond the buying for 1904 standard sections are inactive today, though light rail business is good.

RAILROADER DEAD.

New York, Oct. 20.—Charles Parsons, who had been at the head of many railroads, and one of the most prominent financiers of the country, is dead at his home here from heart disease.

KING EDWARD ENTERTAINS.

London, Oct. 20.—King Edward today entertained at luncheon at Buckingham palace the officers of the American warships now at Gravesend, the guests including Rear Admiral Jewel, commanding the European squadron of the North Atlantic fleet, Captain Colby, of the Cruiser Olympia, Lieutenants Wm. Admiral Lord Walter Kerr, first lord of the admiralty, Prince Louis, of Battenberg, director of naval intelligence and Sir Thomas Lipton were included in the luncheon party, which was quite of a private and informal character.

HERRICK DENIES THE IMPUTATION.

Columbus, Oct. 20.—Secretary Gallows at the governor's office today, denied the story that Governor Herrick was interested in the purchase of the Cleveland World, with the intention of making it a factor in his re-nomination for governor. The governor later emphasized the denial.

JAPS WERE REPULSED

When They Made a Desperate Assault on Outer Posts.

Second Attempt Successful

And a Most Important Capture was Made of an Outpost From Which Russians Have Not Been Able to Dislodge Them.

Chee Foo, Oct. 20.—The most important recent events at Port Arthur include the capture by the Japanese of further minor positions near Rihlung Mountain, and the severe damage of a Japanese torpedo destroyer by striking a floating mine.

According to Chinese advices which reached here today, and which are confirmed in essential points by Japanese letters from Port Dalny the Japanese made assaults on the remaining outer works of Rihlung Mountain at dawn, October 8th and were repulsed. The following day the Russians made an attack on the Japanese trenches, and they in turn were repulsed. The Japanese immediately followed with another assault, resulting in the capture of an iron railroad bridge and the heights south of the bridge, which is five hundred yards from the main fortress. The importance of these captures lies in the fact that they curtail the Russian fire in harassing Japanese who may attempt to advance on the trenches located on the slope of Rihlung Mountain. This attack seems to have been a surprise for the Russians, the Japanese claiming that they lost only fifty men. Since the capture of the points mentioned the Japanese assert that they have successfully resisted numerous sorties in attempts to recapture them.

FIERCE FIGHTING

Reported to Have Occurred on Slopes of Rihlung Mountain.

Chee Foo, Oct. 20.—8:30—A junk which left Liao Ti promontory yesterday, was driven by a gale and arrived here today, bringing 100 coolies, who left Port Arthur because they feared injury from Japanese shells. The coolies say that on October 13 there was fierce fighting for several hours on the slopes of Rihlung mountain between comparatively small forces, during which the Japanese lost 300 killed or wounded.

The coolies were unable to give details of the fighting, but apparently it was the result of one of the numerous sorties made by the Russians against the Japanese who were attempting to advance from their trenches.

Japanese wounded say that the soldiers in the trenches suffer severely from the cold, although the Japanese army is now almost completely supplied with winter outfits.

It is said that the Port Arthur garrison is frantic for news of the operations of General Kurapatkin, from whom the defenders expect relief.

The new that the Baltic fleet had sailed for the Pacific was announced to the garrison and greatly encouraged the Russians.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 20.—A despatch to the Bourse Gazette from Mukden, dated October 19, says that on October 18, a detachment of the Russian vanguard on the Russian front, surrounded a Japanese battalion and compelled it to lay down its arms.

Tokio, Oct. 20.—(Noon)—Reliable reports received from private sources estimate the loss of the Japanese left army during the recent battle at about five thousand. The number of Russians dead is largely increased by the further discovery of bodies, notwithstanding the nightly removals by lantern light. The Russian forces have been reinforced by about thirty thousand men of the seventeenth corps, a large portion of the tenth corps and portions of the fifth and sixth Siberian corps which recently arrived. In all, six divisions of the Russian army now confront the Japanese left army. Heavy rains have impeded the movement of the opposition forces since October 17th.

Tokio, Oct. 20.—It is announced at headquarters here that the left Japanese army captured near Langtoughieh, six ammunition carts, 3,534 rifles, 8,000 rounds of rifle ammunition and tents, clothing, sabers and complements. Additional casualties of the center army just reported are twelve officers killed and thirty wounded.

St. Petersburg Oct. 20.—2 p. m.—The suspension of operations below Mukden continues. It is hinted in military circles that the next developments should be looked for eastward, but whether on the part of the Japanese or Russians is not shown. No news has reached the war office of the reported annihilation of the Russian battalion while recrossing the Taitee river. A despatch from General Sakharoff dated last night, reports that all was quiet along the front yesterday, and that in spite of the soggy condition of the roads, which are described as seas of mud, Russian scouts continue to show great enterprise in examining the Japanese positions. A detachment of the Cossacks Tuesday, reconnoitered the Japanese left, southward along the line extending westward from the railroad where it crosses the Schil river, through the villages of Hantsantai, Taduosampu and Sandepu, the latter fifteen miles west of the railroad. The Japanese sentinels fired and retired as the Cossacks rode rapidly along the line, but near Sandepu the Cossacks unexpectedly ran into a good sized Japanese force with a machine gun. The latter opened a murderous fire on the Russians, killing many horses and mortally wounding Captain Turgenieff, but all the Cossacks succeeded in getting away.

No statement is made as to what is transpiring on the Russian left. The war office is now disposed to believe that the Tokio report of the dubbing given to General Yamada's brigade is the Japanese version of the capture of Lone Tree Hill, nicely turned to minimize its importance. The reports that Generals Rennenkampf and Meyerhoff are wounded, are idle. The former's chief of staff, Col. Rossisky, was wounded.

Opposed to Peace. St. Petersburg, Oct. 20.—7:55 a. m.—The Novoye Vremya this morning discussing the renewed talk of intervention in the Russo Japanese war says: "Such talk is based upon the fact that now and again the voicing of an urgent desire for peace is heard in Russian, must reflect the marvelous ignorance of or indifference on the part of foreigners to Russia's true internal condition. The fact is that in Russia, as in other countries, there are several parties: two of these want peace—the extreme reactionaries, because they constitute what was known in the United States during the Spanish-American war and in England during the Boer, as 'Peace at any price.' Men and the Ultra Radicals, because they are in favor of a humiliating peace would weaken the present government. But these parties are insignificant beside the great body of moderate progressives, who wish to see Russia's interior economical capabilities developed to their fullest extent, and who realize that only through a decisive Russian victory in the far east can the wound be healed, not plastered.

Russia has the opportunity for interior development on which her heart is set."

JAPS PROTEST Against Practice of Russians of Moving Chinese Clothing. Washington, Oct. 20.—As indicated in the Tokio dispatches the Japanese government through Minister Takahara here has entered a formal protest against the use by certain bodies of Russian troops of Chinese clothing, the offending troops being specified in the complaint. The state department, having assumed at the beginning of the war care of Japanese interests and therefore being the natural intermediary between the belligerents when advance is to be made by Japan, has transmitted the Japanese protest to our Edly, Secretary of the Embassy at St. Petersburg and in charge in the absence of Ambassador McCormick, for presentation to the Russian government. It is understood here that the Chinese clothing was not used by the Russian troops to deceive the enemy but simply to make good the failure of the Russian quartermaster's department to supply much needed clothing on the sudden advent of cold weather in Manchuria. Nevertheless it is believed here that the wearing of this Chinese clothing constitutes a technical violation of the rules of war.

SENTENCE WAS GIVEN

Columbus, O., Oct. 20.—Reeling in a cot, the victim of locomotor ataxia, Andrew B. Phillips, former clerk of Jefferson, O., and representative of one of the foremost families of Ashtabula county, was brought to this city under one year's sentence for forgery. Phillips was indicted four years ago for forging names to city bonds aggregating $14,000. Owing to his ailment the trial was put off from time to time until recently forced by the prosecuting attorney.

By Japanese.

Buried 4100 Russians
During the Week.

The Conservative Estimates Place Kuropatkin's Losses at 25,000.

For First Time the Two Armies Met
On an Equal Footing, Not Having Usual Strong Defensive Positions.

With General Oku's left army at the front, Oct. 16, 4 p. m., via Tien Tsai, (delayed)—The seven day's battle north of Yantai was the heaviest blow yet struck the Russians by the Japanese, so far as loss of life is concerned. The left Japanese army during the week buried 4,100. The stan-
pound gun in front of the left wing contains many Russian dead, but the shell fire of the retreating Russians prevents the Japanese from reaching them.

Conservative estimates place the Russian casualties at not less than 2,000. Probably many more dead are in the field in places not yet reached.
The Japanese report their total casualties at a little over three thousand killed and wounded. The principal Russian casualties occurred in determined counter attacks on each village captured by the Japanese. The Russian attacking parties were in many cases entirely annihilated.

For the first time the Russians have met the Japanese on an equal footing, not having strong defensive positions to depend upon, and for the first time they attacked the Japanese in their own trenches. The Russians everywhere fought bravely but they were unable to drive the Japanese out of their positions. The Japanese charge after the Russians in every case the Russians fled from their positions at the first attack, then made retreating attempts to recapture them.
The Japanese left army with a front of nearly ten miles moved forward about five miles, fighting over every inch of ground. The final retreat of the Russians was almost a rout. The Japanese extra left advanced, driving the remnant of the Russians ahead. The Russians made a determined counter attack at Lamtung with two regiments of infantry and two batteries of artillery. They were repulsed after a half hour's fighting, with heavy loss. The Japanese left army during the past seven days fighting has captured thirty four guns, a large number of rifles and overcoats and one hundred prisoners. The strength of the Russians opposed to the left army were three corps and thirty companies of artillery. All but a very small part were newly arrived troops. The Japanese soldiers were practically the same that fought before Liao Yang. The Japanese report that heavy works are ready for the Japanese along the Hun river. The Japanese are undecided where the next stand will be made.

Details of operations of the right and center armies are not obtainable.

MEDIC'S

Hold a Meeting in Delphos.

Lima Was Well

Leading Physicians.

Case Presented Showing Effect of Diphtheria Antitoxin on Croup.

Dr. Bain, of Kenton, Complimented
The Society by Saying It Was One of the Best in the State.

"A regular meeting of the Allen County Medical Society was held in the Mayor's court room in Delphos Tuesday evening, and was attended by a good sized crowd of members of the medical fraternity," says the Delphos Herald. "Lima physicians came over on the seven o'clock car, and after dinner was served at the Eubank House, they repaired to the court room, where the meeting was called to order by the President of the Society, Dr. Terwilliger, of Lima. Dr. C. C. Bliss, of Delphos, was introduced and delivered an address of welcome. In his remarks he made a forcible comparison of progress in the practice of medicine. His address was heartily appreciated by all present. Following, a most able paper was read by Dr. Bates, of Lima, on the subject, 'The Hygiene of the Sick Room,' the discussion of which was opened by Dr. Moore, of Delphos, followed by nearly all present in hearty discussion. The physicians then listened to an excellent paper by Dr.
Huntley, of Lima, on the subject,
'What Shall We Do For Uterine Pri-onitis?' This was also followed by some excellent discussions.

Dr. Italy, of Lima, gave a history of a case and showed the society in a bottle of alcohol a membrane nearly four inches long which was expelled from windpipe of a case at 6 o'clock in the evening, following the previous administration of extraordinary doses of diphtheria antitoxin. An animated discussion followed and it was the consensus of opinion that all cases of membranous croup could be saved by the administration of very large doses of antitoxin antitoxin in the early history of the case.

Dr. Bain, of Kenton, then addressed the meeting on the subject of organization and complimented the Allen County Society by saying that it is one of the best in the state and that the papers read and discussions were equal to those given at the State society. The meeting then adjourned, the doctors repairing to Holz' cafe, where a Dutch lunch was served by the Delphos physicians. These meetings are held twice a month at the hospital at Lima and are very helpful to the physicians. Those present at the Delphos meeting were:

From Lima—Drs. Terwilliger, Huntley, Hunt, Burton, Vail, Murphy, Matthews, Parent, Thomas, Bates, Chenoweth, Rudy, Steimen, Hoover and Bachmeyer.

From Delphos—Drs. Bliss, Tillotson,

A dispatch from Hartford City, Ind., says:

"Pruitt & Gilchrist, of this city, are home from the Delaware county oil fields, where they have just completed two oil wells for Dr. Clarke and John Moore, of Indianapolis. The wells are each good for 300 barrels, and are located on the farm owned by Dr.
Clarke about midway between Smithfield and Selma. The owners of the lease propose to sink 14 wells on the tract.

George Gillespie is also home from Smithfield, where he finished a 500-barrel well for the Acme Oil Co.
Mr. Gillespie says that some of the biggest wells in the state are being struck in the Mt. Pleasant field. The Republic Iron and Steel Co. has just completed a well that is making 800 barrels. The field is extending toward the Albany and Red Key fields, and also tends eastward with good results.
A number of wildcat wells are now being drilled between the proven fields. The Regal Oil Co. holds leases on 900 acres, and has drilled 19 producers without a dry hole. It has five strips of tools going. Its property is southwest of Parker."

Ends His Life

In a Tragic Manner in New York.

Donned Decorations Received For Bravery Then Shot Himself.

Had Been Exiled From His Native Country For Having Shot and Wounded a German Army Officer.

New York, Oct. 20.—Unconsolable over the loss of his favorite son, and an exile from the fatherland, because he had shot and wounded a German army officer, who he believed intentionally caused his son's death, Adam Engelhart, a veteran of the Franco-Prussian war, today shot himself dead in the hallway of an east side tenement where he lived.

Engelhart was 57 years old. He left a large family, and it is said, a prosperous business in Germany when he fled to this country. Before taking his life Engelhart had pinned on his breast all of his medals received for bravery during the Franco-Prussian war, including one given him for his services at Sedan.

In Engelhart's room were found ten letters sealed and addressed, some to the police and others to his relatives in Germany. One bore the address
'Oh Dieser Morderer,' which translated means, 'Oh, that Murderer.' It is supposed that the letter is Eng-elhart's final message of hate to the officer whom he believed had killed his son.

AN ALIBI

Was Established by Wm.
Hawley in Larceny Case.

After a preliminary hearing in Mayor's court yesterday afternoon, William Hawley, a local peddler, who was charged with complicity in the recent car robbery in the P. Ft. W. & C. yard, was dismissed.

Harry Clark, one of the Toledo men arrested for the robbery, was alleged to have made a confession implicating Hawley but the latter secured his release by establishing an alibi.

HILL

Is Bulletined as the Man Who Succeeds

Master Mechanic White of the L. E. & W.

An Official Announcement to That Effect Made in Lima Today.

Conductor C. H. Davis Leaves the Lake Erie and Leaves with His Family for the West Next Week.

There is no longer any doubt as to the successor of Master Mechanic White of the Lake Erie & Western, official announcement being made today in a bulletin issued from the office of the superintendent of motive power at Cleveland, and posted at the Lima shops. The bulletin reads: "Mr. John Hill appointed master mechanic of the company, vice Wm. W. White, resigned, after Nov. 1, 1904. H. P. Ball, Supt. Motive Power."

Mr. Hill is a competent man and is at present master mechanic of the Indiana, Illinois & Iowa shops at Kankakee.

WILL GO WEST

Daughter's Illness Causes Conductor Davis to Make a Change.

Conductor C. H. Davis, of the Lake Erie & Western, has left the employ of the company after a period of 11 years and will leave next week with his family for the far west. He makes the change on account of the long continued illness of his daughter and will go first to New Orleans. His ultimate destination is Los Angeles, where he will join his old friend John Johnson, another Lake Erie conductor who left Lima about a year ago. Mr. Davis, or "Boss," as he is known by all the boys, began life with the road eleven years ago as a brakeman, and served in that capacity for three years, when he was promoted and joined the ranks of the conductors. He has served as such for eight years, and letters he takes with him from Supt. Dyer speak in forcible terms of his character and ability as a railroad man.

EDSON'S CAREER

Like Most Big Railroad Men He Began Life at the Bottom.

J. A. Edson, who succeeds C. G. Waldo as general manager of the C. H. & D., is a native of Ohio and is 45 years old. His railway career is brief as follows: Entered Lake Shore service as telegraph operator when fourteen years of age; became superintendent of the Union Pacific, superintendent of the Missouri Pacific, superintendent and vice president of the St. Louis Southwestern, general manager of the Kansas City Southern, manager of the Denver and Rio Grande, from which he retired to take his present position.

Rumblings of the Rail.

A special train worth almost its weight in gold, passed through Lima over the Pennsylvania for the east, yesterday. The train was loaded with valuable raw and finished silks from the looms of the Chinese empire.

The Indianapolis Star claims to have official authority for saying that Russell Harding, vice president and general manager of the C. H. & D. line, strongly favors extending the line to St. Louis and to Hannibal, Mo. Each of these projects were the ideals of the late H. D. Hammond, president for many years of the Indianapolis, Decatur and Western road, now a part of the C. H. & D. system. The recent extension of this road to Springfield was contemplated by Mr. Hammond. These extensions would undoubtedly prove profitable to the C. H. & D. people and greatly strengthen their position in the railroad world.

Peculiar Moves.

The Delphos Herald thinks there is some kind of a deal over that end of the C. H. & D. It says: "There are several rumors afloat at the present time concerning the construction work on the new C. H. & D. line in and about Delphos. One report states that the men at the head of the construction work have received orders to discontinue work on the new line for the present. A force of men were ready to go to work this morning to build a strip of new track from the Pennsylvania south a short distance, to be used as the main line, but no engine was furnished with which to haul the material. A large number of flat cars were placed at the disposal of the crew but from the fact that an engine was not sent here together with the other rumors causes one to believe that there is a deal on of some kind which will come to a focus in a short time."

The Northern Ohio.

A dispatch from Plymouth, O., says: "An event of importance to Plymouth and vicinity and to railroad circles took place a day or two since, when, at a meeting between the council, board of trade and the directors of the Northern Ohio, it was decided to establish the ends of the two divisions of the road at this point."

Work will be begun at once on the necessary improvements. This means a good deal to Plymouth, as it will cause a large number of families to move here and the hunt for houses and rooms has already begun.

Another feature of the deal is that a survey has been made from this point to intersect the Lake Shore, which now has control of the Northern Ohio property, and will strike the main line somewhere east of Norfolk. This will enable the Lake Shore to connect west of here with territory it cannot now reach.

C. H. & D. Election. The recently elected board of directors of the C. H. & D. R. Co. met at the general offices, in Cincinnati, yesterday morning and organized by electing officers to serve during the ensuing year.

The directors elected the following officers: President, Eugene Zimmerman; Chairman of the Board, George M. Cumming; First Vice President, Russell Harding; Second Vice President in charge of traffic, Charles A. Parker; Assistant Secretary, Thomas J. Walsh, and Assistant Treasurer, J. H. Howard.

The gentlemen elected members of the executive committee are: Eugene Zimmerman, of this city; G. M. Cumming, James H. Wallace and Arthur Turnbull, of New York, and Thomas H. Tracy, of Toledo.

President Zimmerman announced the appointment of Thomas H. Tracy, of the firm of King & Tracy, of Toledo, to the position of General Counsel, succeeding Lawrence Maxwell, Jr., and of J. A. Edson as general manager succeeding C. G. Waldo. The board confirmed both of the appointments.

At yesterday's meeting no one was elected to the position of auditor. This position and some other ones will be filled at a future meeting of the board.

Fatal Accident at Van Wert. Roy Simpson, aged nineteen, was killed by a Pennsylvania train Tuesday morning, while standing near the track talking to a friend. The west bound fast express and a freight passed at the point when the boys were and Simpson was thrown violently. His skull was crushed and his neck broken. He was the oldest son and main support of a widowed mother.

The new men recently chosen as candidates for brakemen and firemen on the C. H. & D. are out on the road this week, being broken in. Everything depends on the trial trips and examination to follow as to whether they will be placed on the pay roll.

Kinney, as the winner of the battle ship New Jersey, which will be launched at the shipyard of the Fore River Ship & Engine Co., at Quincy, Mass., on the 10th.

A Thoughtful Man.

Jas. Taylor, of Kendallville, Ind., was seriously diseased with kidney and bladder trouble for 20 years. He tested every known remedy without much benefit, until he used Pileuses. This new discovery cured him, and Mr. Taylor advises all persons suffering from kidney and bladder trouble to get a bottle of Pileuses at once. H. F. Vorkamp, druggist.

MISSIONARY CONVENTION AT THE ST. LOUIS FA.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 20.—Disciples of Christ Day, the first day of the international missionary convention of the Christian church was celebrated today on the world's fair grounds. More than 5,000 delegates from all parts of the United States and Canada, visiting the exposition, participated in the meeting in Festival Hall and later were entertained at the several state and territorial buildings.

At the Festival Hall exercises the delegates were welcomed by President D. R. Francis of the exposition.

F. D. Power, of Washington, D. C., delivered an address on "History and Doctrines of the Disciples of Christ."

FATAL RESULTS MAY FOLLOW.

Columbus, O., Oct. 20.—So far nothing has been heard of the whereabouts of Andrew Merrick, who shot and perhaps fatally wounded Mrs. E. Williams wife of a farmer north of this city, with whom he eloped to Pike county on Sunday. Merrick has a long record with the local police court and is a dangerous character. He has a suspended sentence of 100 and costs and 6 months in the work house hanging over him from a charge of assault and battery preferred by his wife whom he deserted when he left with Mrs. Williams.

Attend Grand Lodge Meeting at Toledo.

The fifty-ninth session of the Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons, convened at the Valentine theatre in Toledo yesterday morning, and is attended by a larger number of delegates than any previous meeting of the Grand Lodge in Ohio.

Lima is represented by the following members of the order who went up this morning: B. S. Fogle, Robt. P. Jones, Wm. M. Melville, R. N. Tyler Norton Sager and D. R. Cantley.

TWO

Pleas Changed to Guilty And the Court Adds the Reward of Their Evil Doing.

Irvin Peltier Gets an Indeterminate Sentence to State Reformatory.

J. C. Winegardner Develops a Clear Case of Insanity at County Jail and Was Taken to the Toledo Hospital.

Irvin Peltier, arrested by Pennsylvania detectives for having placed an obstruction on the tracks, and who was indicted by the grand jury changed his plea to guilty in open court this morning and was sentenced to the Mansfield reformatory. Under the law governing that institution the court fixes no time, it being left to the authorities, who are governed by the nature of the offense and the conduct of the prisoners.

Peltier, who is not credited with possessing a strong mind, and was no doubt led into his act by reading blood thirsty and heroic literature, placed a tie upright between the rails crossing the Auglaize river bridge, and then made preparations to flag a fast east bound passenger train. If his plans had stood in the light of a hero, but his heart failed him and he telephoned to Delphos in time to have the train crew notified of the obstruction.

He told a story of overhearing the conversation of a couple of would-be train wreckers, and hurried to the rescue of the crew and passengers, but after his arrest he made a full confession.

ADJUDGED INSANE

And J. C. Winegardner Was Taken to the Toledo Hospital.

J. C. Winegardner, who was arrested on the charge of sending in a false fire alarm, and was taken to the county jail, was declared insane this morning by Judge Miller, after an examination by Dr. Johnson. It was well known that the man had done a number of peculiar things, but that he was of a violent disposition did not make itself noticeable until within the past few days. He destroyed everything breakable in his cell and as soon as the decision of the probate judge was rendered, Sheriff Barr had him started toward Toledo.

Property Appraised.

Reth A. Ashton, guardian of Sally O. Ashton, adjudged an imbecile, filed an inventory and appraisement this morning. The inventory shows 13 lots valued at $1,175.

Another Guilty One.

Thomas Glendon, indicted for larceny, pleaded guilty when arraigned, and was sentenced this afternoon. He stole 18 suits or underwear and some trunks, valued at $21, and the crimes constituted petit larceny, the small value of the goods saving him from the penitentiary. He was fined $5 and costs and sent back to jail for thirty days.

Made An Assignment.

A. H. Miller, proprietor of the meat market at 630 east Elm street, has made an assignment, and placed his affairs in the hands of W. T. Copeland, for adjustment, the latter qualifying as assignee in probate court this morning. There is mentioned as assets in lot 6062, Collins addition and a small amount of personal property. Liabilities are not given.

MAJORITY

Opinion in Wisconsin Muddle Filed. It Declares in Favor of the LaFollette Faction.

While a Dissenting Opinion Is Rendered by Chief Justice Cassaday Who Favors the Stalwarts.

Madison, Wis., Oct. 20.—The long delayed majority opinion of the supreme court of Wisconsin on the republican factional fight in this state was filed today by Judge Marshall. It makes sixty type written pages and merely affirms the decision made two weeks ago, quoting authorities voluminously. Principal interest centers in the dissenting opinion by Chief Justice Cassaday, which is in substance that the "Stalwarts" were right and the "Half Breeds" (the LaFollette faction) wrong in the contention.

AND THIS IS SPORT.

Rowdies Who Ought to Be in Jail Instead of College.

The special train which carried nearly 500 rowdies from Ann Arbor University to the East ball game in Columbus, passed through Upper Sandusky over the Rocking Valley, on the return trip. The train stopped there fifteen minutes for supper, and the students acted more like a gang of rowdies than educated Americans. The boys rubbed from the cars and into the Utah House and Wm. Golden's Saloon, nearby, and stole everything in sight. The marting on the floor was torn up and the chairs and furniture, besides lunch, were taken at the Utah House. At Golden's they took freely of the whiskey and beer and even took an onyx clock. Mr. Olpp and Mr. Golden will report to the faculty concerning the loss and damage done.

Preparing for a Game.

The Van Wert Bowling Club has challenged the local team for a game in that town, and it was answered by a counter challenge to bring the Van Wert bowlers to Lima for a contest at the Brunswick alleys, Thursday of next week. Lima has twice visited Van Wert and the boys feel that it is time for a return visit.

Ready For Practice.

The baskets were placed in Ohler's auditorium today and the ball is now ready for practice work on the part of the teams that will play this season. The White Stars will get at it from now on and the first contest will be announced within the next few days.

ANOTHER

Big Trust Is Now Being Completed

And Teddy, the Trust Buster, Does Not Object.

The American Tobacco Company Formed With Capital of $180,000,000. Will Absorb Smaller Companies.

Trenton, N. J., Oct. 20.—Papers were filed with the secretary of state today providing for the carrying out of the plan of merger of the American Tobacco Co., the Consolidated Tobacco Co., and the Continental Tobacco Co. The Consolidated companies are to be known as the American Tobacco Co. with an authorized capital of $180,000,000, of which $80,000,000 is preferred stock with six per cent cumulative dividends and $100,000,000 common stock. The papers filed give the names of the officers and directors of the company, including J. B. Duke, president; W. H. McAllister, secretary, and John M. W. Bicks, treasurer. The terms of merger in respect to the absorption of these companies are thus agreed upon and published some time ago, and which have been the subject of litigation.

JURYMAN GOT DRUNK AND WAS DISCHARGED.

Columbus, O., Oct. 20.—Judge Bigger, today fined juror Thomas J. Stephens $25 and discharged him from duty because he became intoxicated and violently remonstrated with the other jurors in the manslaughter case of Solomon Hardy. The entire panel of jurors was dismissed and the work of hearing was declared to be void.

AN EASY JOB FOR JOHN.

Akro, Ohio, Oct. 20.—As a result of an address before the convention of the Ohio Baptists today, by C. D. Antisl, the society adopted a resolution memorializing Secretary Taft to do all in his power to put an end to the horrible atrocities in the Congo State. Antisl described the atrocities as he saw them and gave political and other causes. He says slavery is worse than ever.

OHIO MAN ELECTED.

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 20.—The Chicago national association adjourned since today after deciding to meet next year at Philadelphia, and electing officers.

W. W. Ogden, of Newark, Ohio, was elected president and Henry A. McClellan, of Wilmington, Del., secretary and treasurer.

THE OPINIONS DIFFER.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 20.—6:10 p. m.—The Bureau Gazette's correspondent at Mukden sticks to the story that the Japanese are slowly retreating. On the other hand several other correspondents telegraph that operations have been suspended owing to the rain. They say the armies are confronting each other across the Shalok river and add that nothing important is expected for several days.

FIRST TRIAL

Of the Direct Voting Primary Election Law

Has Been Made in Detroit But the Returns Are Yet Far From Complete.

Has Been Made in Detroit But the Returns Are Yet Far From Complete.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 20.—Although the returns from the primaries held in this city and Wayne county, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, in which was made the first general application of a direct voting primary law in the city and county, are still far from complete, it is considered that Alderman George Gidd has been nominated by the republicans for mayor. Wm. C. Maybury, the present mayor, had no opposition for the democratic nomination. Indications are that Attorney Edwin Derby, member of the state legislature, has polled the greatest number of votes for the republican congressional combination from the first district. This, however, is not yet certain.

ABOUT PEOPLE.

Edward Clark, head of a sewing machine company, who conceived the idea of selling goods on the installment plan, died worth $200,000,000. His widow is now the wife of Bishop Potter.

Lord Curzon's writing is said to be so bad that few can read it. He wrote to a friend regarding a relative's shortcomings. The letter, by mistake, was sent to the relative, and the latter, supposing it to be a request for money, sent a check at once.

THE FOOL'S VERDICT.

The Wise Judgment That Was Delivered by Simple Senny Jean.

Here is a story which has gone the rounds of three and a half centuries. It has been credited to many writers, but was first told by Rabelais:

In Paris at a roast meat cookery of the Petit Chatelet a certain hungry porter was eating his bread and at the same time snuffing the rook and steam from a fat goose which was being turned on a spit before a great fire, thereby gaining savory accompaniment to his dry ration.

He ate very slowly that he might enjoy the roasting, smoking savor as long as possible, and when his penny loaf had been consumed he attempted to depart. But the cook was not of that mind. The master of the shop laid hold upon him by the gorget, demanding pay for the smoke and steam of the roast goose. The porter demurred. The cook claimed that a portion of the meat had clearly been made from the savor snuffed up and swallowed.

It claimed while the discussion was going on that Senny Jean, the fool, entered the shop, and the matter was referred to him.

"Will thou submit to the judgment of this good citizen?" asked the cook. "Aye, by the blood of the goose, that I will," answered the porter.

The story was then told and the case argued. The fool listened attentively, and in the end he asked the porter to let him take two pieces of his money. The poor man drew from his belt two pieces of copper. Senny Jean took them and juggled them awhile between his two hands and then gave them back whence he had received them. Then to the cook he said: "The porter did smell of thy goose, and thou hast heard the jingle of his money. Thou hast thy goose intact, he hath his money, as seemeth to me right and proper. And now this court doth decree further that every one go about his own business lest we have too many fools among us."

Innomia and Indigestion Cured. "Last year I had a very severe attack of indigestion. I could not sleep at night and suffered most excruciating pains for three hours after each meal. I was troubled this way for about three months when I used Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and received immediate relief," says John Dixon, Tulamora, Ontario, Canada. AT THE BATTLE OF YALU.

There was a fellow to the right of me somewhat up the stream, who was also pushing ahead. Suddenly he turned a somersault in the stream, the stream brought him down rather close to where I was wading, and he gained his feet almost in front of me. He seemed to be dazed for a fraction of a second. He raised his head to his forehead, from which blood was dripping. It was very evident that a spent bullet hit him upon the forehead and knocked him down into the water. He dug his fingers into the bullet hole. The bullet did not strike him square against the forehead, it glanced around his head, piercing the skin only, and stopped just above the temple. He stuck his finger into the hole and took out the bullet. He looked at it curiously for about a tenth of a second and put it into his pocket and rushed straight ahead. —Japanese Story, in Leslie's Magazine.

The polls of the democratic primary election which were opened at 5 o'clock last evening, closed three hours later and considering the fact that there were no contests on the ticket except in the matter of the selection of four nominees to be placed on the school board ticket, and that there was no campaigning done by either of the candidates for nomination on this ticket, the vote cast within the three hours that the polls were open was reasonably heavy, evidencing the fact that the democracy of the city is interested far more earnestly in the coming election than the Republicans, headed by Quast-Dornier-Glan and Co., will admit in their factional organ the Republic-Gazette.

The ticket nominated is an excellent one and could not have been other wise for every candidate was a worthy one. William E. Reilly, of south Main street, leads the ticket as a candidate for second term in the office of Justice of the Peace, and his running mate, the candidate nominated to succeed Justice J. W. Mowen is John H. Louy, the well known former chief train dispatcher for the C. & D. and one of the most popular and worthy democrats in the city. Both men are well qualified for the offices for which they have been nominated and their legion of friends in both the republican and democratic parties will aid in securing their election in November. The remainder of the ticket is also filled with excellent candidates and when the votes are counted next month the democrats will be found to have nominated a list of candidates who have the confidence and support of the citizens of Lima in general without regard to party affiliations.

CLOSE RACE

Run by Messrs. Miller, Welker and Terwilliger on School Board Ticket.

The race between William Miller, Dr. T. R. Terwilliger and Elmer E. Welker, for fourth place on the school board ticket, was a very close one, the unofficial returns showing the following figures as the totals of the vote cast for school board nominations:

James Donahue, Sr. 454
H. S. Prophet 363
James Porter 304
William Miller 254
T. R. Terwilliger 232
Elmer E. Welker 247

The above figures were compiled from the unofficial returns which were made to Chairman Shappell, of the executive committee, and to chairman E. J. Vasey, of the city central committee, last night and the official returns when canvassed at the meeting of the city central committee this evening, may make some changes, possibly even in the nomination of the fourth candidate.

The city central committee will meet at the democratic headquarters at 7 o'clock this evening, at which time the official returns of the primary will be canvassed and the other three nominations necessary to fill out the school board ticket will be made. This is the second day of registration and all democrats who have not yet registered should do so this evening. The places of registration in the various precincts will be open until 5 o'clock.

ONE Of Lima's Fairest Daughters

Now the Bride

Of a Worthy Gem City Young Man.

Brilliant Autumn Wedding at Home of Mr. and Mrs. Ira P. Carnes.

Their Daughter Sabine, Becoming the Bride of Mr. Hugh Hall Phelps, of Dayton—Many Relatives Attended.

One of the most brilliant of the autumn weddings occurred last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ira P. Carnes, when their charming daughter, Sabine, was united in marriage with Mr. Hugh Hall Phelps, of Dayton, in the presence of a hundred relatives and intimate friends of the bride, half of the number being from Dayton.

The interior of the Carnes home was beautifully decorated with asparagus fern and huge white chrysanthemums, the mantle in the sitting room being transformed into a bower of palms, with a lace-like network of fern in which was caught some of the choicest of the chosen flowers.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Madge Mitchell sang sweetly, "Love Linketh True Hearts Forever." At half past six the Watson orchestra played the beautiful and familiar Lohengrin, and the bridal party entered the path formed of ribbons borne by the brothers of the bride, Walter and John Carnes. The groom was attended by Mr. Millington Kemper, of Dayton, and Miss Fannie Wise, in a beautiful gown of green crepe de chine, and carrying pink roses, was the bride's only attendant. The full Episcopal ceremony was used in uniting the destinies of these two happy young people, and was read by Dr. Robert J. Thomson, while the soft strains of "Hearts and Flowers" came from the orchestra.

The bride's gown was of white chiffon crepe over tulle with a bertha of Duchess lace. Her veil, which was a gift from one of her friends, was of tulle and orange blossoms; her flowers were bride's roses and lilies of the valley.

The wedding supper, which was served at the conclusion of the ceremonies, was under the supervision of Miss Shopp, of Dayton. The bride's table was indeed a thing of beauty with its beautiful linen, and burning tapers in crystal candelabra. Seated at the table with the bride and groom were Miss Fannie Wise, Miss Madge Mitchell, Miss Wichter, of Dayton, Merle Langan, Millington Kemper and Walter Carnes.

When the Dayton guests left the house at 8:30 to board the special car which was to take them home the bride and groom appeared among the number much to the surprise of their friends who had made elaborate preparations to see them off, and they only became aware of the fact that they had been outwitted, in time to dispose of a goodly amount of rice.

In one more instance, Lima loses one of her fairest daughters, Mr. Phelps taking his bride to Detroit to reside, where they will be at home to their friends after December the first.

Booneville, Ind., Oct. 20.—Wm. J. Bryan made the first speech of his last day of the present Indiana tour here today to a large crowd. He was met by a parade claimed to be the largest ever seen here, and escorted to the fair grounds where every foot of space within sound of his voice was occupied. In Mr. Bryan's speech reference was made to the fact that this is the home of the appropriations committee. Mr. Bryan spoke feelingly of Abraham Lincoln and of the mother of the martyred president, whose grave was in plain sight as he spoke. Other speeches scheduled for today were at Lincoln City, Huntingburg, English and Corydon, the tour to close tonight at the park between New Albany and Jeffersonville, opposite Louisville, Ky.

SENSATIONAL

Scene in Criminal Court in Cleveland.

When a Bribery Case Was Being Heard.

The Accused Impeached the Motives of the Public Prosecutor, Who Opened His Flood Gates of Invective.

Cleveland, O. Oct. 20.—There was a sensational scene in criminal court today, during the hearing of the bribery charges against John W. Moore, president of the Bellevue Light & Power Co., in connection with the Bellevue lighting franchise scandal, when Moore intimated that the grand jury indictments might have been controlled by money.

Moore's statement roused Prosecutor Keeler to a frenzy. Hardly had Moore concluded his statement when the prosecutor jumped to his feet and in language burning with epithets, denounced him.

Keeler, pointing his finger at Moore, who sat on the opposite side of the trial table, said bitterly: "You infamous scoundrel, you contemptible cur! A man did come to me and say that there was something in it for me if I would get Mayor Bill Meyer indicted, but that man did not come for himself but for another higher up in authority."

This dirty Bellevue mess is the most corrupt case I've ever known."

As a result of today's hearing, the bribery charges against Moore and Stevenson were pulled.

FOOTSORE

And Weary Lima Couple Reached Findlay.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick C. Bradley, of Lima, were escorted to the police station last night by Officer Goodrich, says the Findlay Courier. The couple had walked the entire distance from the Allen county metropolis to this city and upon their arrival here, Mrs. Bradley was in an almost helpless condition her feet being swollen to about twice their normal size.

The young couple started out on foot for Sandusky where a job awaited the husband. They had no means of transportation and were too independent to ask for aid. The woman was given medical attention and today Mr. Bradley secured a position on the Joy house building. They will reside in this city.
